Mr. Howard's Message

We have come to the close of another school year, thus completing another step up the ladder of success.

I realize some of you feel the time is moving very slowly, however, I'm sure you will find upon graduation, that you will wish there had been more time. Life moves rapidly, thus you must set your standards early in life and work diligently to meet each of them.

Always keep in mind, that the future of the world rests on your shoulders. Do everything in your power to help build a future of which you can be proud.

Mrs. McClure is kept busy by the demands of an active school. She types bulletins, fills in the dreadful report cards, is in charge of lunch tickets, and keeps all things orderly.

Mr. Byrd, Mr. Heinrich, bus drivers

Mr. Widner, Mrs. O'Dell, Mrs. Sherman, bus drivers

Mrs. Denney,
Mr. Smith, janitors

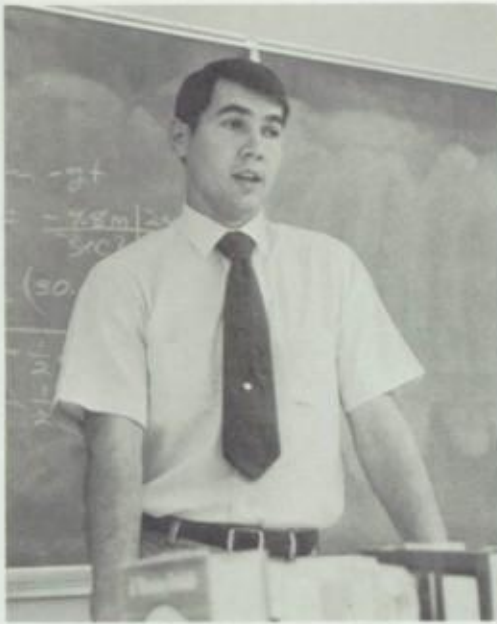

Foundation of M.H.S.

Mrs. Dale, cook

Mrs. Keithly, Mrs. Rollins, cooks

Mr. Mitchell really "cuts up" in class. He teaches earth science, biology, advanced biology, and also coaches the junior varsity team.

Mr. Igarashi leads the musically inclined students by directing chorus, band, stage band, and pep band.

Faculty

Mr. Sutton knows all the "angles." He teaches all phases of math, from business to advanced math and geometry.

Mr. Dunn inhabits the guidance counselor's office, teaches world history, and also does a fine job of coaching the varsity basketball team.

Mr. Warfield devotes equal time to both of the sexes. He instructs vo-agriculture and grade 9 girls P.E.

Mr. Payne instructs the grade school's P.E. teaches grade 8 English, & forcefully coaches football.

Mrs. Thorsen is active in both daily subjects and extracurricular activities. She teaches English, Spanish, and was voted Queen of the Donkey Basketball game.

Mrs. McCallum is a perfect bookworm. Her daily habitat is the library where she aids students & ends their talking.

Mr. Bean would make the perfect secretary for some nice looking girl. He teaches typing, general business, which is new this year, and also journalism.

Mr. Hooper delves into the past and analyzes various kinds of minds. He teaches speech, history, and also psychology.

Curt Jessup, Christy Gertner, Debbie DeCroo, Marci Wiley, Bruce Fox, Barbara Sutton, Jeanne Jessup, Nina Carlow, Wayne Cada, Bill Williams, Bruce Boyd, Mr. Payne. STANDING: Cary Cada, Kneeling: Anthony Hale and Randy Dale.

President Barbara Sutton kept order during the meetings and many other MHS functions.

Vice-President Bruce Fox filled in during the absence of the president.

Student Government

Secretary Marcia Wiley kept the MHS records in good order

Treasurer Nina Carlow kept MHS's money in good supply.

Watch number 13, she's wearing a mustache.

Gossip, gossip, gossip!

And Mr. Sutton, as your personal counselor....

Gretel and the Witch??

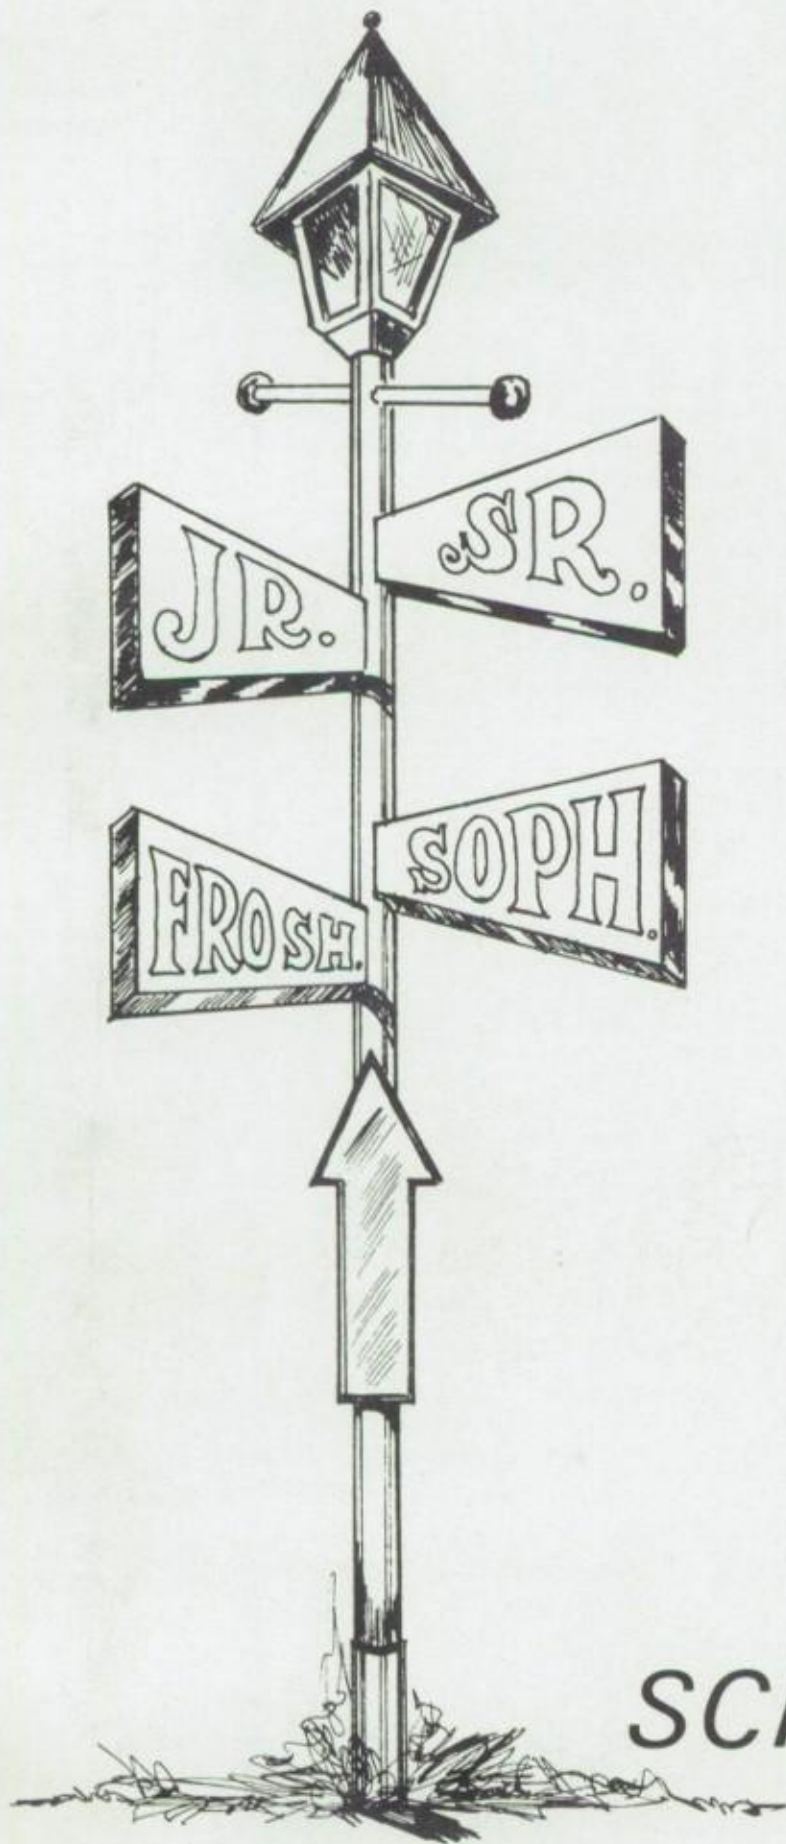

Ho hum!

Laying down on the job.

Joe Qualls, Rod Dale, and Allen Hopper were the football captains this year, and the only seniors on the squad. They proved to be good leaders and kept the team inspired with their spirit.

Coach Payne reminiscing an old game plan that did the trick.

Curt you can get off now!

Don't stand there Bill!

Rodney Dale played tail-back and was noted for his hard running ability and hitting.

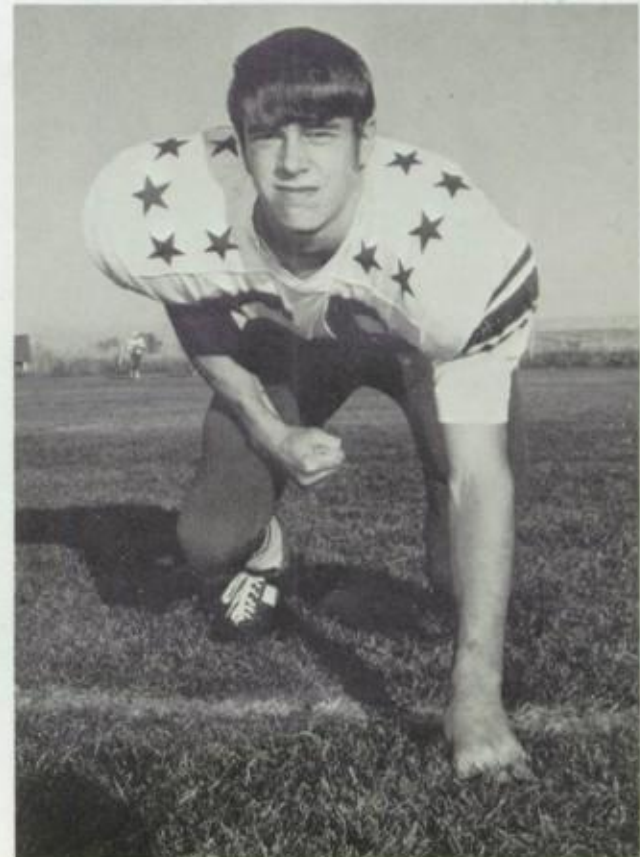

Joe Qualls played split end. He was noted for his catching, running and hitting.

Poke him in the eye, Dennis.

Allen Hooper played both defensive and offensive guard. He did a good job blocking and was a good hard tackler.

Bruce looks downfield for an opening.

Joe Qualls catches touchdown pass.

Varsity Basketball

The two trophies pictured at left serve as mementos of the fine record that the Midvale varsity basketball team compiled during the 1970-1971 season.

The trophy on the left is the Long Pin Co-Champion trophy. The Rangers tied with Council for the championship, with 10-2 records.

The trophy on the right is the district 3 A-4 championship trophy, which the Rangers won by defeating Riggins 72-69 in the championship game. That victory gave the Rangers a trip to Coeur d'Alene and the state tournament.

At state, the Rangers played two games, losing to Troy by four points in the first, and bowing to Clark Fork in the second.

The rangers ended the season with a record of 25 wins and 5 losses.
